Jacaranda Lodge... nestled in a bush setting at the rear of Sydney Adventist Hospital in Wahroonga you will find motel style accommodation for patients and families.

Twin & Triple Bedrooms

Twin or triple bedrooms accommodate guests. Each room features a flat screen TV, reverse cycle air conditioning and the privacy and convenience of an ensuite bathroom.

Two self-contained family units

The units are suitable for families with children.

Free internet access available

Swimming Pool

Guests may enjoy the Hospital swimming pool.

Cancer Support Centre

Located at the front of the Lodge, the Cancer Support Centre provides support, education and counselling.

Meditation Garden

A peaceful place to sit and relax.

Transport

A bus service operates from the San to take guests to Turramurra, Thornleigh or Hornsby Station.

Kitchen and Dining Areas

Four spacious and sunny kitchen, lounge and dining areas are available for guests to share and provide an environment where guests can support each other and form lasting friendships.

Guests may cook their own meals; or alternatively, low cost meals can be purchased from the Hospital's eateries, San Cafe, San Snax and Relish as well as nearby restaurants. There is a small shopping village within walking distance of the Hospital.
