

Advanced Life Support

Level 2 Accreditation

Develop the advanced knowledge, practical skills and leadership confidence to manage critically ill patients and lead cardiac arrest situations

Successfully complete the course to achieve Resuscitation Australia ALS2 accreditation, with practical training delivered by Resuscitation Australia-accredited instructors.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

Designed for experienced healthcare professionals who may be required to take a leadership role during clinical deterioration and cardiac arrest, including:

Nurses • Medical Practitioners

Earn
CPD
Hours

16

WHAT WILL YOU LEARN?

Develop advanced skills to:

- Recognise and manage critically ill and deteriorating patients using a structured ABCDE approach
- Manage airway and ventilation during clinical emergencies
- Recognise and manage cardiac arrest rhythms and apply the ALS algorithm
- Defibrillate safely and manage shockable and non-shockable cardiac arrest
- Perform pacing and cardioversion
- Identify and manage reversible causes and cardiac arrest in special circumstances
- Administer appropriate medications during cardiac arrest
- Recognise ROSC and provide post-resuscitation care
- Lead a resuscitation team, clearly communicating priorities and coordinating an effective response

COURSE

This is a 16-hour course:

- 8 hours eLearning
- 8 hours face-to-face

LOCATION

Sydney Adventist Hospital
185 Fox Valley Road
Wahroonga NSW 2076

COST

$1600

SCAN THE QR CODE

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION AND TO REGISTER

